CELEBRATE CASWELL AT ART IN THE HEART!

With more talented performers and artists participating than ever before, this year's arts festival is going to be fabulous! Come on out, meet your neighbours and find out what they've been up to! Or, find out what they do in their basements (pottery, painting, music...!)

The outdoor music stage has a full line up featuring lots of great music by Dieter Braun, Young James, Malika

Sellami, Cidne Treen, Paul Tobin & Brian McAreavey, Ray Elliot Band, and Circling Over Shannon.

Indoors, we're bringing back the soprano with the amazing voice everyone was talking about last year, Anastasia Winterhalt. We'll also be featuring Troubadours du Bois, a group that performs medieval and renaissance music.

Also on the indoor stage, Ben Who! International Magician & Illusionist will perform and Shakespeare's Shadows will lead a theatre performance that rounds out a workshop offered earlier in the day.

The artists' village boasts over 50 artists with more to come!

The Children and Teen's Arts Festival will feature Meewasin's Puppets in the Park, the SaskTel Mendel Art Caravan, and lots of games, activities, art-making, and fun! Youth aged 10 to 18, will have the opportunity to take part in a Shakespeare workshop commencing in an onstage play!

Following a trend from last year, festival-goers will have the opportunity to participate in two art-making projects this year: the Caswell Modular Art Project and Sole Painting. For information about these projects see the article entitled Group Art-Making Returns! on page 6 of this newsletter.

The free drawbox for original artwork and great prizes from local businesses will be at Festival HeadQuarters again. Cds from the festival musicians can also be bought here.

Our neighbourhood festival is amazing! It is talked about around the city and showcased as one of the best community festivals around. It is truly something we can all be proud of and it happens because of the many, many people who get involved! See page 7 in this newsletter for a list of how you can lend a hand towards the success of our festival!

C'mon out, have fun, take in some great music and art, and celebrate Caswell Hill. Check out the website for more festival information www.caswellartsfestival.wordpress.com

WELCOME TO THE NEIGHBOURHOOD!

The Caswell Hill Community Association would like to extend a warm welcome to anyone who has recently moved into the Caswell neighbourhood. Caswell Hill is one of the first neighbourhoods in Saskatoon and its boundaries run from Avenue H to Idylwyld and 33rd St to 22nd St. There are two schools: the elementary school, Caswell Public Community School, is celebrating 100 years this year and the high school Bedford Road Collegiate, which opened in 1923, is Saskatoon's second oldest high school. We hope you enjoy all the great amenities such as the Mayfair Library, Ashworth Holmes Park and playground, Mayfair Pool, skating on the new rink at Caswell School, Lawn Bowling, Harry Bailey Aquatic Centre just across Idylwyld, and the many shops and services located on 33rd, Idylwyld, 22nd St and sprinkled throughout.

Our Community Association hosts a number of annual events such as an arts festival in September, a winter carnival, and a community clean-up in May. There are also organized leisure activities for youth and adults. Please consider getting involved in the Community Association this year by attending the Annual General Meeting and sharing your ideas and what you're interested in helping with. Everyone is welcome!

NEWSLETTER NEWS

The newsletter is published three times a year, in January, May and September. Advertising deadline for the next newsletter is Nov 1st. Rates are $25 business card / $40 quarter page / $80 half page. Articles about community events, issues and people are welcome.

MESSAGE FROM THE ASSOCIATION

Hope everyone is enjoying his or her summer, what little we've had of one. There has been lots of action in the community since our last newsletter, and we still have our annual Arts Festival and AGM to look forward to in September.

This year's community clean up drew an awe-inspiring 25 volunteers; seasoned veterans as well as newcomers to the community came out to help. The only unfortunates were a desperate need for more trucks and that Glenn Dougan; King of the Clean Up, was missing due to illness. Thank you very much to the great number of hard-working people in our community who volunteered their time, trucks, and gas at this year's community Clean Up. Thanks to Blue Line Taxi United Group for donating car wash passes for the trucks again. Caswell Hill is brighter and shinier thanks to all of you!

There was a healthy turnout for the Community Garden meeting of mid-May with the majority of attendees opting to support placing the garden in Ashworth Holmes Park. Tilling for the garden will be added to Parks' work roster for spring of next year. On another gardening related issue, water main replacement has necessitated the removal of (resident planted) mature gardens as well as City trees on the 29th St. median. The Parks Department will replant the trees and similar sized patches of open topsoil will be left for bed replanting when the boulevard is restored.

On June 20th thirty-seven people attended the South Caswell Concept Plan Design Workshop. The community, City and, consultants of MMM Group worked together to identify possible options for redevelopment of the transit facilities once they're moved to a new home. Several common themes emerged during the group presentations, including housing, park space, retail, green initiatives, etc. Community development certainly inspires the creative visionaries of our neighbourhood.

Towards the end of June some bushes in Ashworth Holmes Park were thinned. On behalf of the association, I contacted the Parks Branch Manager to request that further work be delayed until our CA and Parks representatives could discuss the situation. That dialogue resulted in the decision to bring the issue of bush maintenance back to the community through a public meeting. At that time, we will discuss the Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design (CPTED) program that we had agreed, through our Local Area Plan, to implement in the park.

At least 460 people celebrated Mayfair Pool's 50th Birthday Party on July 17th. When the association discovered the City's plans to commemorate this milestone event with a party we offered to help by providing a free BBQ. I'm sure the old fashioned games, run by pool staff, helped fuel appetites as all age groups participated. The City's Community Development Branch provided "food for thought" by posting the concept plans (version one) for the future pool development, as well as real food in the form of several tasty birthday cakes. The City agreed to reduce admission for the day, charging only $1.00 per individual and $2.00 per family, supporting our request that the event be as accessible as possible to all residents. Thanks to Saskatoon Co-op and Safeway on 33rd for their donations and to local politicians, volunteers, the City and pool staff, and all the people who came to celebrate!

Our AGM is coming in September and with the year wrapping up there are a few others to thank:

thank you to Caswell School and staff for your help over the past year with our programming, winter carnival, and arts festival. We don't know what we'd do without you!

Thank you to all the people who defy the elements to deliver our newsletters throughout the year, the soccer coaches who volunteer to coach our kids, other program instructors, the dedicated people who have sat on the board this past year, and other passionate and active members in the community. Thank you to everyone that who helps out in Caswell, you make this community a jewel among neighbourhoods and an enviable place to live!

Please remember to come out to Art in the Heart, our 8th annual festival, on September 13th at Christ Church-Anglican and to the AGM, also at Christ Church, September 15th at 7:00 p.m. 515 28th Street West.

HIGHLIGHTING TWO NEW BUSINESSES IN CASWELL

submitted by Shannon Floer

We live in a great neighbourhood! One of my roles on the Communications Committee is to seek out advertisers for our newsletter. At first, I didn't think I would enjoy going to businesses to see if they would like to advertise but it has turned out to be quite an enjoyable experience. The business owners in our neighbourhood are very friendly and interesting people. It's actually surprising the variety of goods and services available all within a short walk. As a welcome to our neighbourhood I thought I would interview some new business owners and to feature two of the new businesses I have noticed around Caswell.

The Quick Read:

A new dance studio focused primarily on offering classes to adults has opened in our neighbourhood located at 224 25th St (at the corner of Ave C). Registration via mail is accepted throughout August or call 665-5998. In person registration is Saturday September 12 from 3pm to 7pm and classes start the week of the September 14th. For more information see their ad in the newsletter or go to their website at www.freeflowdance.com

The Story:

Jackie Latendresse is a dancer, instructor and now the owner of a permanent location for her dance theatre company and studio. Originally from Ontario, Jackie has been looking to open a dance centre for the past 10 years; she had been previously renting space at the Refinery. The new location is a former church which Jackie describes as the perfect size, and a nice open space with hardwood floors. When I asked why she chose Caswell she said she preferred a residential neighbourhood because it's all about the people, it's convenient and it's unique in Caswell. Jackie is also a new resident to our neighbourhood.

Latendresse founded the professional dance company, Free Flow Dance Company in 1994 and has toured across Canada as well as in the United Kingdom. In addition to offering training and mentorship to professional and pre-professional dancers, as part of the dance company, there are many classes open to the general public who have an interest in dance (even if they have no experience). Dance classes include modern, ballet, and a dance sampler where participants warm up at the ballet bar and learn a new form of dance each week; many classes are suited for beginners. The studio also offers the only contact improvisational dance class in the city. Although primarily an adult focused dance centre, there are two children's classes being offered in the fall: children's creative and ballet. Jackie is open to feedback from the community about classes they would like to see in the future.

Not too sure about a dance class? There are plenty of other classes to explore: bellyfit, yoga, booty conditioning (described as a sassy exercise class that's fun!), as well as burlesque and boylesque classes. The Rosebud Burlesque Club is a side project of Jackie's. There are 150 members (you need to be 18 years old or older to join) and they offer socials, classes, and, although they do not put on recitals, they do performances for fundraisers that are focused on women related issues. Last year they raised over $7,000 for breast cancer research. For more information about the burlesque club visit their website at www.Rosebudburlesque.com

Jackie invites you to come and visit the studio and take a look around. In addition to the regular schedule of dance and fitness classes, there will be workshops, performances by the dance company, a "works in progress" series, as well as single event workshops. The studio is also available to rent for socials, fundraisers, stagettes, concerts, dance choreographers and dance performances.

The Quick Read:

A variety of classes such as yoga, nia, and laughter yoga are offered at the Studio. Fall programs start September 8th and people can register via phone 292-7534, on the web, or drop-in to a class the first week (there's side doors into the studio so you don't have to use the front gates). The Medspa also offers a variety of services including laser treatments, skin care, and they are the first in Saskatoon to offer Jane Irdale mineral make-up line. They also offer clinics on eye care (skin around the eye) and make-up clinics. To book appointments related to the spa call 343-1799. To access the Medspa go through the front gates to the reception desk. Oshun House is located at 912 Idylwyld North. More information can be found on their website at www.oshunhouse.com

The Story:

Oshun House is the joint venture of Dr. Laura Lee McFadden and Hina Raume. Both had dreamed of opening a spa and yoga studio for years and searched for the right place. They fell in love with the building on Idylwyld which has been home to a number of churches in the past. The location offers a large space, ample parking, and is quiet despite being on a busy street. The building has been gutted and renovated over the past year and is beautiful inside. As you enter the front gates there is a lovely garden and through the front doors you are greeted into a relaxing and tranquil space. Laura Harris, Studio Manager, took me on a tour of the building and it's obvious they have paid attention to details in the waiting room, treatment rooms, and decor throughout the space. The yoga studio offers a retreat away from a busy day. Space on the second floor will be used in the future for services such as massage and reflexology.

Many of you may be curious about the thought behind housing seemingly different services in one location and it was one of the questions I posed to Dr. McFadden and Ms. Harris, to which they responded "Oshun House embraces the continuum of beauty and wellness, from the inside to the outside." Dr. McFadden wants people to feel welcome regardless of their age, fitness level, whether they choose to wear make-up or not, and people shouldn't feel like they need to be a certain size or shape to enjoy a class in the studio. Oshun House aims to be a welcoming place where all religions and spiritualities are honoured. For more information go to their website www.oshunhouse.com.

CASWELL HILL'S ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

Caswell Hill's Annual General Meeting takes place at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday September 15th, 2009 at Christ Church Anglican Parish Hall, located at 515 28th Street West (enter through side door on 28th St.).

Why should you attend the AGM, you wonder? Briefly, the AGM gives you the opportunity to elect new members to your Board, approve the annual budget and to discuss particular projects and/or issues.

Specifically, if you're interested in joining the board our bylaws state that elections for executive positions shall be held at the Annual meeting each year. If you live in the neighbourhood, you are considered a member in good standing, eligible to vote and be nominated for election. All executive positions are 1-year terms and nominations may be made from the floor at the Annual Meeting.

There are additional responsibilities, beyond the approximate 2-hour monthly meetings, required of the executive. Board members often volunteer at our events and can be called on to attend a myriad of other functions, meetings, etc. Schedules don't always permit for such a sizable time commitment and yet many people would still like to participate at the community/civic level. There are opportunities for interested community members to serve on standing committees comprised of board and non-board members. For example, positions on the Programming, Communications, Events and Civics Committees can be filled at any time.

A healthy community association is an integral part of the neighbourhood; see you on September 15th.

GROUP ART-MAKING RETURNS!

Collaborative art-making debuted at last year's Art in the Heart of Caswell festival and has been brought back for the '09 festival to reflect this year's theme, Heart and Soul. Both the Caswell Modular Art Project and Sole Painting are opportunities take part in collectively creating artwork.

The Caswell Modular Art Project involves blank canvasses, paint, brushes, and the ideas and initiative of the wonderful people of Caswell. You're invited to feel inspired by the ambiance of the festival – and transfer your inspiration to canvas.

Conceived by Caswell Hill artist Jessica Kapell and sponsored by Northland Books, the Modular Art Project represents the possibilities of creativity by festival patrons.

The idea behind the project is for festival-goers to individually paint a canvas that can stand alone, and also, as part of a larger collected work; which can be broken down into stand-alone groups or parts of that whole. It's simple to do and is wonderfully representational of individuals in a community and the various ways in which they can come together.

Sole Painting involves music, paint, bare feet, and a canvas on the ground. Remember finger painting? Sole painting offers an opportunity to experience it again, only this time with your feet!

Sponsored by the Medicine Shoppe, you're invited to put your soles into this group art project by kicking off your socks and shoes and dancing to the energetic music of Circling Over Shannon. Water and towels will be available to clean up afterwards.

The Caswell Modular Art Project will be open for participation from 1 pm – 3 pm and Sole Painting is scheduled for 5:30 pm.

COUNCILLOR REPORT – WARD 1

Hello Caswell Hill,

I hope that you have had an opportunity to enjoy the sunny summer days that we have received this year.

Council has been very busy with stimulus projects this year, just as Caswell Hill residents have been busy in the neighbourhood. Mayfair Pool celebrated its 50th Birthday at which the Community Association hosted a BBQ, the South Caswell Hill Concept Plan is well under way, the new Mayfair Pool design is in its first round of public consultations, the Community Association in partnership with three neighbourhood churches is planning Art in The Heart, and much more.

As many of you already know, Saskatoon's ward boundaries will be changed for the 2009 municipal election. The City of Saskatoon is divided into ten wards, the boundaries of which were established by the Municipal Wards Commission in 2003, in accordance with the provisions of The Cities Act. The Act stipulates that each ward must contain, as nearly as is reasonably practicable, the same population and that ward population cannot vary by more than 10% from the quotient obtained by dividing the total population of the city by the number of wards into which the city is divided. The Act further states that the Municipal Wards Commission must review the ward boundaries at least once every nine years or when the population of a ward exceeds the acceptable variation limit of 10%.

The Municipal Wards Commission has established new ward boundaries, to be in effect for the October 28th election. At such time Caswell will become part of Ward 2.

I am honoured to have been your City Council representative for the past three years. I have worked very closely with many of you and we have accomplished some great things. Who would have thought there would be a brand new pool on the way, a South Caswell Hill concept plan and an active plan to move the bus barns (not just talk – but actual action), and much more.

I am very fortunate to have met many of you and to have formed many friendships that will continue for the rest of my life. Thank you Caswell!

There is much more work that needs to be done and if I am re-elected I will remain a strong voice for Caswell Hill and for all of you. Please feel free to contact me.

As always - Be well,

SHARROWS HELP MAKE DOWNTOWN SASKATOON BICYCLE FRIENDLY

Downtown Saskatoon is becoming bicycle friendly with the implementation of sharrows on downtown streets.

These markings appear on roadway lanes and guide cyclists as to where they should ride. They also let motorists know they must share the lane with cyclists and keep a safe distance when passing.

The use of sharrows does not mean the rules of the road have changed. "Sharrows simply remind cyclists and motorists they need to share the lane," says Jamison Gillert, City of Saskatoon Project Coordinator.

Sharrows appear in the centre of narrow lanes, and cyclists and motorists travel in a straight line. In wide lanes, the sharrow is to the right of the lane, and cyclists and motorists travel beside each other. Exclusive lanes are for cyclists only.

Over 5,000 residents, almost 2.5% of the population, commute to work by bicycle every day, making Saskatoon second only to Victoria in Canadian per capita rates of commuter cycling. The City hopes sharrows will encourage even more people to commute by bicycle.

NEW 2U

Here's an event that will relieve household clutter, lessen waste disposal costs, reduce stress on landfills, and best of all - provide free stuff for people in need! Developed by City Councillor Darren Hill, it's called NEW 2U, and it will take place in select neighbourhoods through September and October, 2009.

On Saturday, October 24, 2009 residents of Caswell Hill will bring their unwanted but still usable possessions to their curbs for others to cart off for free. Allowable items include sporting goods, electronics, tools, household furnishings, books, toys, shoes, clothing, plants, building materials, furniture, and working-condition durable goods.

Through the generous support of corporate sponsors and media partners the message will be delivered city wide in August. You will have the summer to decide what can be taken to the curb as well as what can be brought back from the cabin, farm or acreage and be recycled. The NEW 2U website and other environmental partners will be announced in August!
